

St James's Players Amateur Dramatics Group

Health & Safety Policy

The Group believes that excellence in the management of health and safety is an essential element within its theatrical productions- a good health and safety record goes hand in hand with excellence in performance.

People are the most important asset to this Group, and therefore we are totally committed to ensuring their health, safety and welfare at all times.

The Group is committed to on-going monitoring and review processes, so that continual improvement in the management of health and safety can be achieved.

Our general intentions are: -

- To provide adequate control of the Health and Safety risks arising from our theatrical productions and general activities;
- To consult with our Group members and volunteers on matters affecting their Health & Safety;
- To provide and maintain safe systems of work and equipment and comply with church policies and insurance requirements;
- To ensure safe handling and use of hazardous substances;
- To provide information, instruction and supervision for all Group members and volunteers;
- To ensure all Group members and volunteers are competent to undertake their tasks and to provide adequate training where necessary;
- To prevent accidents;
- To maintain safe and healthy working conditions;
- To provide a safe environment for audience members and visitors that attend our performances, rehearsals and other meetings;
- To review this policy at regular intervals;
